

UTILIPOINT INTERNATIONAL, INC. CITATION POLICY

UtiliPoint International, Inc. research materials and documents in the public domain may be in the following ways:

- Internal communication
- External sales presentations
- Communication with third parties and prospects via e-mail
- Annual reports or internal business planning documents
- Press releases (requires approval by UtiliPoint marketing department & analyst/consultant)

A citation is defined as use of a single graph or slide or a portion of text up to one paragraph long.

All text must be identified as "Source: UtiliPoint International, Inc., Document Title, Date" and the UtiliPoint International Copyright notice must be affixed to all graphs or slides.

The UtiliPoint International, Inc. Copyright Notice is:

“© 2008 UtiliPoint International, Inc., All Rights Reserved.”

The following uses of citations are not permitted unless written permission is granted by UtiliPoint International, Inc.:

Use on a website.

Use in sales brochures, marketing collateral (direct or e-mail marketing) advertising copy, trade show materials, newsletters, etc.

Use in a report, white paper, or publication, or any other materials contracted from a third party.

To speak with somebody regarding UtiliPoint's citation policy, please e-mail contactus@utilipoint.com.